Personal Information you provide:

The College will generally collect personal information held about an individual by way of forms filled out by parents/guardians or students, face-to-face meetings and interviews, emails and telephone calls. On occasions people other than parents/guardians and students provide personal information.

Personal Information provided by other people:

In some circumstances the College may be provided with personal information about an individual from a third party, for example a report provided by a medical professional or a reference from another school.

How will the College use the personal information you provide?

The College will use personal information it collects from you for the primary purpose of collection, and for such other secondary purposes that are related to the primary purpose of collection and reasonably expected by you, or to which you have consented.

Students and Parents/Guardians

In relation to personal information of students and parents/guardians, the College's primary purpose of collection is to enable the College to provide schooling to students enrolled at the College, exercise its duty of care, and perform necessary associated administrative activities, which will enable students to take part in all the activities of the College. This includes satisfying the needs of parents/guardians, the needs of the students and the needs of St Patrick's College Townsville throughout the whole period the student is enrolled at the College.

The purposes for which the College uses personal information of students and parents/guardians include:

- to keep parents/guardians informed about matters related to their child's schooling, through correspondence, newsletters and magazines
- day-to-day administration of the College
- looking after students' educational, social and medical wellbeing
- seeking donations and marketing for the College
- to satisfy the College's legal obligations and allow the College to discharge its duty of care.

In some cases where the College requests personal information about a student or parent/guardian, if the information requested is not provided, the College may not be able to enrol or continue the enrolment of the student or permit the student to take part in a particular activity.

On occasions information such as academic and sporting achievements, student activities and similar news is published in College newsletters, magazines or on our website. This may include photographs and videos of student activities such as sporting events, College camps and excursions. The College obtains permission upon enrolment regarding the use of this material for promotional purposes.

Job applicants, Staff Members and Contractors

In relation to personal information of job applicants, staff members and contractors, the College's primary purpose of collection is to assess and (if successful) to engage the applicant, staff member or contractor, as the case may be.

The purposes for which the College uses personal information of job applicants, staff members and contractors include:

- in administering the individual's employment or contract, as the case may be
- for insurance purposes
- seeking donations and marketing for the College
- to satisfy the College's legal obligations, for example, in relation to child protection legislation.

Volunteers

The College also obtains personal information about volunteers who assist the College in its functions or conduct associated activities, such as alumni associations, to enable the College and the volunteers to work together.

Marketing and Fundraising

The College treats marketing and seeking donations for the future growth and development of the College as an important part of ensuring that the College continues to provide a quality learning environment in which both students and staff thrive. Personal information held by the College may be disclosed to organisations that assist in the College's fundraising, for example, the College's Foundation or alumni organisation (or, on occasions, external fundraising organisations).

Parents/guardians, staff, contractors and other members of the wider College community may from time to time receive fundraising information. College publications, like newsletters and magazines, which include personal information, may be used for marketing purposes.

If you would like to opt-out of direct marketing please contact the College Principal on 4753 0300 or office@stpatscollege.qld.edu.au

Who might the College disclose Personal Information to and store your information with?

The College may disclose personal information, including sensitive information, held about an individual for educational, legal, administrative, marketing and support purposes. This may include to:

- another school or staff at another school
- government departments (including for policy and funding purposes)
- medical practitioners
- people providing educational, support and health services to the College, including specialist visiting teachers, (sports) coaches, volunteers, counsellors and providers of learning and assessment tools
- assessment and educational authorities, including the Australian Curriculum, Assessment and Reporting Authority (ACARA) and NAPLAN Test Administration Authorities (who will disclose it to the entity that manages the online platform for NAPLAN)
- student background information is linked to students' results in the various components of the National Assessment Program (NAP) including the calculation of the Index of Community Socio Educational Advantage (ICSEA) which enables fair comparisons to be made between schools with similar students on My School
- people providing administrative and financial services to St Patrick's College Townsville
- recipients of College publications, such as newsletters and magazines
- students' parents/guardians
- anyone you authorise St Patrick's College Townsville to disclose information to
- anyone to whom we are required or authorised to disclose the information to by law, including child protection laws.

Sending and Storing Information Overseas

The College may disclose personal information about an individual to overseas recipients, for instance, to facilitate a College exchange. However, the College will not send personal information about an individual outside Australia without:

- obtaining the consent of the individual (in some cases this consent will be implied)
- otherwise complying with the Australian Privacy Principles or other applicable privacy legislation.

The College may use online or 'cloud' service providers to store personal information and to provide services to the College that involve the use of personal information, such as services relating to email, instant messaging and education and assessment applications. Some limited personal information may also be provided to these service providers to enable them to authenticate users that access their services. This personal information may be stored in the 'cloud' which means that it may reside on a cloud service provider's server which may be situated outside Australia.

Sensitive Information

In referring to 'sensitive information', the College means: information relating to a person's racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religion, trade union or other professional or trade association membership, philosophical beliefs, sexual orientation or practices or criminal record, that is also personal information; health information and biometric information about an individual.

Sensitive information will be used and disclosed only for the purpose for which it was provided or a directly related secondary purpose, unless you agree otherwise, or the use or disclosure of the sensitive information is allowed by law.

Management and Security of Personal Information

College staff are required to respect the confidentiality of students' and parents/guardians' personal information and the privacy of individuals. The College has in place steps to protect the personal information the College holds from misuse, interference and loss, unauthorised access, modification or disclosure by use of various methods including locked storage of paper records and password access rights to computerised records.

Data Breaches

Please refer to the St Patrick's College Townsville Data Breach Response Plan.

Access and Correction of Personal Information

Under the Privacy Act, an individual has the right to obtain access to any personal information which the College holds about them and to advise the College of any perceived inaccuracy. There are some exceptions to this right set out in the Act. Students will generally be able to access and update their personal information through their parents/guardians, but older students may seek access and correction themselves.

To make a request to access or update any personal information the College holds about you or your child, please contact the College Principal in writing. The College may require you to verify your identity and specify what information you require. The College may charge a fee to cover the cost of verifying your application and locating, retrieving, reviewing and copying any material requested. If the information sought is extensive, the College will advise the likely cost in advance. If we cannot provide you with access to that information, we will provide you with written notice explaining the reasons for refusal.

Version Number:	3	Date Modified:	February 2022

Consent and Rights of Access to the Personal Information of Students

The College respects every parent/guardian's right to make decisions concerning their child's education. Generally, the College will refer any requests for consent and notices in relation to the personal information of a student to the student's parents/guardians. The College will treat consent given by parents/guardians as consent given on behalf of the student and notice to parents/guardians will act as notice given to the student.

As mentioned above, parents/guardians may seek access to personal information held by the College about them or their child by contacting the College Principal. However, there will be occasions when access is denied. Such occasions would include where release of the information would have an unreasonable impact on the privacy of others, or where the release may result in a breach of the College's duty of care to a student.

The College may, at its discretion, on the request of a student grant that student access to information held by the College about them or allow a student to give or withhold consent to the use of their personal information, independently of their parents/guardians. This would normally be done only when the maturity of the student and/or the student's personal circumstances warrant it.

Enquiries and Complaints

If you would like further information about the way the College manages the personal information it holds, or wish to complain that you believe that the College has breached the Australian Privacy Principles, please contact the College Principal on principal@stpatscollege.qld.edu.au. The College will investigate any complaint and will notify you of the making of a decision in relation to your complaint as soon as is practicable after it has been made.

APPENDIX 1

Standard Collection Notice

1. The College collects personal information, including sensitive information about students and parents/guardians before and during the course of a student's enrolment at the College. This may be in writing or in the course of conversations. The primary purpose of collecting this information is to enable the College to provide schooling to the students enrolled at the College, exercise its duty of care, engage in marketing/fundraising and perform necessary associated administrative activities, which will enable students to take part in all the activities of the College.
2. Some of the information we collect is to satisfy the College's legal obligations, particularly to enable the College to discharge its duty of care.
3. Laws governing or relating to the operation of a School require certain information to be collected and disclosed. These include relevant Education Acts, and Public Health (and Child Protection)* laws.
4. Health information about students is sensitive information within the terms of the Australian Privacy Principles (APPs) under the Privacy Act 1988. We may ask you to provide medical reports about students from time to time.
5. The College may disclose personal and sensitive information for educational, legal, administrative, marketing and support purposes. This may include to:
  - other schools and teachers at those schools
  - government departments (including for policy and funding purposes)
  - Catholic Education Office, the Catholic Education Commission, the College's local diocese and the parish, other related church agencies/entities, and Colleges within other Dioceses/other Dioceses
  - medical practitioners
  - people providing educational, support and health services to the College, including specialist visiting teachers, (sports) coaches, volunteers, counsellors
  - providers of learning and assessment tools
  - assessment and educational authorities, including the Australian Curriculum, Assessment and Reporting Authority (ACARA) and NAPLAN Test Administration Authorities (who will disclose it to the entity that manages the online platform for NAPLAN)
  - people providing administrative and financial services to the College
  - anyone you authorise the College to disclose information to; and
  - anyone to whom the College is required or authorised by law, including child protection laws, to disclose information
6. Personal information collected from students is regularly disclosed to their parents/guardians.
7. The College may use online or 'cloud' service providers to store personal information and to provide services to the College that involve the use of personal information, such as services relating to email, instant messaging and education and assessment applications. Some limited personal information may also be provided to these service providers to enable them to authenticate users that access their services. This personal information may reside on a cloud service provider's server which may be situated outside Australia.
8. The College's Privacy Policy, accessible on the College website, sets out how parents/guardians or students may seek access to and correction of their personal information which the College has collected and holds. However, access may be refused in certain circumstances such as where access would have an unreasonable impact on the privacy of others, where access may result in a breach of the College's duty of care to a student, or where students have provided information in confidence. Any refusal will be notified in writing with reasons if appropriate.

9. The College's Privacy Policy also sets out how parents/guardians and students can make a complaint about a breach of the APPs and how the complaint will be handled.
10. The College may engage in fundraising activities. Information received from you may be used to make an appeal to you. (It may also be disclosed to organisations that assist in the College's fundraising activities solely for that purpose.) We will not disclose your personal information to third parties for their own marketing purposes without your consent.
11. On occasions information such as academic and sporting achievements, student activities and similar news is published in College newsletters and magazines, on our intranet (and on our website) this may include photographs and videos of student activities such as sporting events, College camps and excursions. The College will obtain permissions (annually) from the student's parent/guardian (and from the student if appropriate) if we would like to include such photographs or videos (or other identifying material) in our promotional material or otherwise make this material available to the public such as on the internet.
12. We may include students' and students' parents/guardians' contact details in a class list and College directory.
13. If you provide the College with the personal information of others, such as doctors or emergency contacts, we encourage you to inform them that you are disclosing that information to the College and why.
